The Saskatoon Concert Band is going on a Mediterranean Cruise!

On Saturday, January 16, the Saskatoon Concert Band will perform a concert of music inspired by countries and people of the Mediterranean. The performance will take place at Rawlco Radio Hall in the Frank and Ellen Performing Arts Center at 7:30 PM. Take a trip with the Saskatoon Concert Band, and let your imagination take you to warmer and more exotic locales during this winter season.

We will spend some time in Spain, with music from “Le Cid” by Massenet and “Espana Cañi”, by Pasqual Marquina. Ilio Volante’s March “Etrusca” will take us to Italy. Jacob de Haan’s “Postcard from Greece” will take us to a sunny Greek island. Morocco cannot be missed; we will spend some time there with “Marrakech Bazaar” by Stan Applebaum. “Flight of the Griffin” by Brian Balmages and “Spoitorea” by Bora Bilgin will transport us to places closer to the Middle East. We might even take a surprise side trip to another destination. Come take the cruise with us!

Saskatoon Concert Band, Saskatoon's premier community band, has been performing in Saskatoon and area for over 60 years. The group performs a wide range of music, from orchestral transcriptions, original wind literature, light classics, marches, and Broadway show tunes.

Tickets are $15 for adults, $7.50 for seniors and students, children under eight are free of charge. Tickets are available from Band Members and McNally Robinson, and will be available at the door on the evening of the performance. Tickets will not be available from the Persephone Box Office.
